

COVID-19 UPDATE NO. 4

Thursday, 29 October 2020

Dear Members,

The Ministry of Health has requested more details on 'Close Contact' going back as far as the 12 October '20, they have been given all details going back to the 17 October '20 as originally requested.

All 48 staff, contractors, and caddies were tested for the Corona Virus on 28 October '20, and all are now in home quarantine for the next 14 days. They will be tested again on the 15th day before returning to their work stations, once a person is tested, they receive a wrist band which is dated based on the records of encounter with the infected person. The results of the tests will be out within the next 5 to 6 days, Members will be updated.

The affected Member has been hospitalized and has been attended to by the authorities. We have been advised by the Buaya Group that all those who have not gone for COVID-19 testing will have their test done today.

Friday 30 October '20, 457 Members of staff, contractors, and caddies will be tested at the club for Corona Virus and the results thereof will also be communicated to Members.

The Ministry of Health Hotline Number: 011 5629 5356. The Doctor in charge of this case at the Ministry has instructed that they will only deal with one person at the Club concerning this case, all communications must go through our Human Resources Manager Ms. Nagammai M. Suppiah.
