

COVID-19 UPDATE NO. 5

Friday, 30 October 2020

Dear Members,

Please be advised that RSGC has been informed that on 29 October 2020, the second case of one of our Members has confirmed positive with COVID-19.

The Member infected with the coronavirus has been contacted by the Ministry of Health and hospitalised accordingly. A further announcement will follow as Management is updated.

We would like to advise Members that we are working closely with the authorities and taking all precautionary measures with close contact tracing with this member for all Members' safety.

Please note that with immediate effect the Club is closed to all Members until further notice.
